Taxpayer Identification Number Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- 1. The Taxpayer Identification Number listed in the Vendor Address area above is the correct number assigned to me, and
- 2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest and dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to the backup withholding, and
- 3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

You must select this check box if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholdings, you are subject to a $500 penalty. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations on this form may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Definitions:

"Taxpayer Identification (TIN, SS, or EIN number)" is the number required by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) to be used in reporting income tax and other returns. The TIN may be either a social security number (SSN) or an employer identification number (EIN).

"U.S. person" means:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States.

The TIN, as well as the information above is required in order to comply with debt collection requirements of 31 U.S.C. §§ 7701(c) and 3325(d), reporting requirements of 26 U.S.C. §§ 6041 and 6041A, and implementing regulations issued by the IRS. Failure or refusal to furnish this information may result in 28 percent backup withholding on any payments otherwise due under any awarded contract or purchase order.

The TIN may be used by the government to collect and report on any delinquent amounts arising out of the vendor's relationship with the government (31 U.S.C. § 7701(c)(3)). The TIN provided may be matched with IRS records to verify its accuracy.

Complete this section only if a TIN was not provided on page one, and select closest reason why not:

The vendor is a nonresident alien, foreign corporation or foreign partnership that does not have income effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States and does not have an office or place of business or a fiscal paying agent in the United States;

The vendor is an agency or instrumentality of a foreign government;
